Projects

---

Command-Line Tools for Linguists

- Developed scripts for corpus processing, enabling text from a book to be output in various formats: each sentence on a separate line, each word on a separate line, or as a frequency list of words sorted from most to least frequent. github.com/sannitabell/cmdline-course
- Tools Used: Python, Makefile, Shell

My Own Jekyll Website

- Developed a website featuring an introductory page, a CV, and an in-depth overview of the Command-Line Tools for Linguists project and course. github.com/sannitabell/sannitabell.github.io
- Tools Used: SCSS, HTML, Ruby, Shell, JavaScript
